Date Introduced: March 22, 2005
Date of Summary: April 20, 2005

The bill amends the Section 518 of the Michigan Liquor Control Code of 1998 to reduce from 70,000 to 1,500 the number of seats required to allow the public to bring alcoholic beverages into sanctioned motor sports events. The requirement that the retail licensee hold a license for consumption on the premises is deleted. Michigan State Promoters Association is added to the list of sanctioning bodies.
